INTERIOR PROTECTION

WHEEL WELL COVERS

Your first line of defense.

Wheel wells protrude from the side of your van and are often the first part to get damaged. Our Wheel Well Covers are a simple way to protect the most exposed area of your van. They protect against dents and damage, reduce road noise, insulate, and improve the aesthetic appearance of your vehicle.

FIRST LINE OF DEFENSE

Did you know that Wheel Wells are often the first thing to get damaged in a new van?

Our Wheel Well Covers prevent that from happening; so you can onload, and offload equipment without any fears.

Available for all Vehicle Models

Wheel Well Covers are designed to fit Crew Vans, but NOT dual rear wheels or super single.*

DECREASE ROAD NOISE

Highway noise can reach levels over 80 decibels. In most circumstances, that's not an issue. However, over long periods of time, that level of sound can cause permanent hearing loss.

Wheel Well Covers block out the noise to protect you, and your van from potential damages.

PROFESSIONAL APPEARANCE

The appearance of your van is a direct reflection of your brand.

Wheel Well Covers improve the professional image of your vehicle to make it more professional and clean.

WHEEL WELL COVERS FAQ

Do Wheel Well Covers help insulate my van?

Yes they do! LEGEND Wheel Well Covers come as an insulated plastic mold which both insulates against extreme temperatures, and against excessive noise. They can make a huge difference when paired with a Rigid Floor and Interior Liners.
